THE ORDER MODIFIED

Whipple Barracks are not yet Hopelessly Abandoned .- The Matter Held in Abeyance for Future Con-

No sooner was the word flashed over the telegraph wires that the war department contemplated again the abandonment of Whipple Barracks than, work was commenced to counteract the influence at work against Arizona. The following telegrams, which is only a part of what has been done, are self explanatory and indicate clearly that final action has not been taken yet

THE LATE GENERAL CHOCK.

The above famous military man for years was at the head of the Department of Ari-zona, and when not out in the fi-ld resided at Whipple Barracks. He was firm and true to Arizona and her interests and in return was idolized by the people. The abandonment of any mattery was vehemently discountenanced by him so long as the San Carlos reservation existed to menace the whites. Can others say they have the same sacred feeling for the people? When Renaud first went as senator to Paris, he engaged a room at a hotel and paid a month's rent-150 francs-

Tonto Basin, which a few years ago was the scene of a feud between people, is again threatened to become the scene of trouble, according to a Phenix correspondent. The correspondent in question quotes Judge A. J. Howell, of the Gross Seven ranch, in Tonto Basin, as
